Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After escaping an abusive ex-husband, Jenny Clark focuses on making ends meet from one day to the next. Then she meets her new apartment building manager, and the passion in his kisses dare her to believe she could have a second chance at love. At a crossroads in his life, Grant Walker returns from New York to manage his apartment building in Redemption. He didn't expect to meet the woman of his dreams and find everything he never knew he wanted in small town Wisconsin. But someone doesn't want either of them to be happy, and even as menacing acts of vandalism pull Jenny and Grant closer together, a harbored secret could destroy all hope of their happily ever after. EXCERPT: He was just thinking about checking out Memorial Day sales to purchase a car or truck when the ring of his cell phone interrupted his thoughts. A glance at the caller ID didn't list a name or number, but he answered anyway while opening the car door. Walker. Grant Walker? Yes, it is. The female voice sounded vaguely familiar, but his memory had no success matching it with a name. Any relation to Frank Walker? He's my uncle. Grant quickly checked the caller ID again as his stomach bottomed out. Are you calling from the hospital? Is he okay? No. I mean, no I'm not from the hospital, the woman quickly clarified, sounding flustered. I live at Wayside Apartments, and I'm calling because I'd really like to send him a card. Do you mind giving me the name of the hospital he's at? That's why...
