Old Secrets: Lies, Lust and Trickery in the auction room (Paperback)

By Ian Ingram

Memoirs Publishing, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. When priceless antiques from a wealthy colonel s manor house go on the market after his death, the news well and truly puts the cat among the pigeons. Antiques dealer Freddie Simson sets out to make a killing at the auction, while fine art specialist Justin Cransbrook sees an opportunity to reverse the flagging fortunes of his company. Crooked saleroom owners Joe and Alice Dobson make plans to cash in big time, while the Colonel s disinherited niece, the beautiful and forthright Samantha Rivington-Pratt, is impatient to get her hands on some of the treasures which should rightfully have been hers - to say nothing of the handsome young man she finds cutting wood in the grounds of the manor. Meanwhile the Colonel s housekeeper, disapproving of her late employer s taste in paintings, starts putting them on a bonfire. Old Secrets is a sexy, light-hearted romp through the world of antiques and fine art, written by an author with a sense of humour as well as a professional knowledge of the antiques trade.
