Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Having the unique perspective of a Christian, American manufacturing business leader and Chinese martial artist; Bob looks into the melding of our two cultures and what it means to our economy, our environment and our freedom of religion. Warning America that we are about to be conquered by the pen and the sword, Bob underscores our need to dig deep to resurrect the post WWII American work ethic and apply this to our efforts to turn the economy around. God doesn't expect us to stop working just because we don't have a job. In fact, He expects us to step up the pace. What's happening in America is we are being conditioned to depend on government handouts instead of taking the risks needed to compete for entry level jobs. There are jobs out there and ladders to climb! More than ever before there are Americans doing nothing all day long. Equally as bad, our large companies are wrought with ineffective managers, wasteful, non-value added jobs in the middle and minimal paying jobs to our least qualified, hardest working Americans on the front lines. Combine this with an out of control litigious society and no wonder our corporations are moving to China. The solution is spiritual! Maintaining a positive individual countenance is critical. This is best done through a mind steeped in thanks, and activities that focus on helping others. Begin each day asking God what He wants us to do for Him instead of asking Him what He can do for us! There is nothing more spiritual than doing His work first each day. Pray, sing, go to church all you want, but He expects...
