As a small child, my mother taught me about faith the size of a mustard seed. A lesson which would become of great importance after being diagnosed with an incurable disease at the age of 15. I have had to face many impossibilities in my life, but at the same time, by putting my trust in God and His word, I have been able to overcome all of them. This is my story, of the miracles God has done for me. It is my hope that others will learn as I have, to trust God for the impossibilities in their own lives. To know how much God truly loves them, and who is willing to show Himself strong for them. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
