VESSEL OF KALI

Richard Milner. Paperback. Condition: New. 400 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.9in.The disciples of the goddess Kali, the Kalika, are broken. Believed to be myth, their arcane order has for centuries rescued those who have awakened from the drug-induced pleasure and religious fervor of the city of light and Logic, New Corinth. Now, the Kalika have been fractured from within by extremists turned violent against the world above their underground cloisters, and New Corinth, a city where fear and anger are censured, is unable to cope with the dissident factions brutal emergence. Elara Aeve Kalika ascendant, warrior and teacher, sister to a family left behind in New Corinth may hold the key to salvaging society. She rails against the ineffectual, divided leadership of the Kalika, insisting they take action, swiftly and decisively, to seal the rift in their order before it consumes Kalika and Corinthian alike in a bloody conflagration. But Elara harbors a secret far more dangerous than any extremist force. A dire power swells alive inside of her, growing conscious, hunting her with cataclysmic visions, demanding blood for peace. Soon, Elara is targeted for death and caught in a conspiracy that takes her beyond the walls of Kalika cloisters, all the way to the heart of New Corinth and through the planes of reality itself. Branded as a savior by some, destroyer by others, she may be the only one willing to do what is necessary to protect her home and kin, even if it means succumbing to the dark thirst within and awakening the once-living goddess Kali, Herself.
